

Certificate of Insurance

A current certificate of insurance for all involved organizations, speakers, and performers is required for events taking place on any property of Taylors First Baptist Church. Please note that proof of a certificate of insurance will be required prior to the confirmation of the booking of the event. The following certificate of insurance requirements must be met:

Certificates of insurance must include additional insured status and a waiver of subrogation for Taylors FBC as it pertains to general liability and automobile liability. A waiver of subrogation in favor of Taylors FBC is required on the Workers Compensation. Taylors First Baptist Church must be listed as the certificate holder.

The insurance certificate shall show coverage with limits not less than the following:
