

CHRIS DEWEASE, EXECUTIVE PASTOR

Chris was born in Greenville and grew up in the upstate of South Carolina. He is a graduate of North Greenville University and attended The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Chris was ordained at Marietta First Baptist Church in Marietta, SC, in August of 2001. After college, Chris worked as a manufacturing manager for Milliken & Company. He has planted Spanish language churches in Marietta, SC, and Louisville, KY. While in seminary, in addition to the Hispanic ministry, he worked as Archives and Special Collections Assistant at the James P. Boyce Centennial Library. He returned to South Carolina to serve as Senior Pastor at Blue Ridge Baptist Church in Greer. Before joining the Taylors First Baptist pastoral staff, Chris served as Executive Pastor at Lake Murray Baptist, Lexington, SC.

Chris has a passion for strengthening relationships within the body of Christ, stewarding church resources to develop disciples with a desire to be engaged in missional living.

