"Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life." Proverbs 16:31

Taylors Seniors exists to enable and empower senior adults to experience transformed living through biblically sound worship, through the study and application of God's Word, and through the development and application of key spiritual disciplines.

The Funeral Usher Team

One of the most important times in the life of a family is when a loved one passes away and the family gathers for a Celebration of Life Service with extended family, friends, and fellow church members to say their final goodbyes to their loved one. The importance of that service emotionally and spiritually provides opportunities for one of Taylors FBC behind-the-scenes ministry teams to shine. Our Funeral Usher team works not only to allow for orderly flow during family visitation and the celebration service, but also to provide personal comfort to family members and friends as their various needs are met.

One Usher Team member sums up well the thoughts of other team members as to why they so willingly give of their time and service, "It has allowed me to use my spiritual gift of service – serving and loving on families during their time of grief and guiding them through the time of celebration of life for their loved one with family and friends. Also, I have the pleasure of serving with a team of dedicated friends whose main purpose is to show the love of Jesus to grieving families."

Taylors Funeral Usher Team, led by Ronnie Davis, is second to none. A local funeral director once said that our Usher Team is so well organized and efficient that it allows him to reduce the size of his staff that he normally would bring. If you would like to serve with this important ministry team, contact our Pastoral Care Ministry Assistant Cheryl Cruel in the Church Office.

Captivated Recap

Captivated was such an incredible weekend filled with so many precious moments. All of the speakers and breakout session leaders did an incredible job of sharing their testimonies and the ways God has spoken truth into their lives. There were so many great discussions about who God is and the freedom that comes from walking with Him. Watching these women face the lies of the enemy head on and seek after God's truth was incredible to watch! I'm so thankful to have witnessed all that God is doing in each of their lives!

— Allyson Pearce, Small Group Leader

Lies of the enemy affect us all! As Hannah led us to dig into the Word, we saw how God has given us His armor to fight this battle. The Lord revealed lies that we may be believing and Truth to fight them with. Would you pray for each of the young ladies (and us not-so-young ladies) who participated, that we would "be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might. [That we would] put on the whole armor of God, that [we] may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil." Ephesians 6:10-11

— Debbie Crittendon, Small Group Leader

Captivated is one of my favorite events of the year! It's so sweet to be able to gather with my best friends to worship our creator! This years theme was "Truth be Told." We talked about how we need to put on the whole armor of God so that we can go out into the world for Him! Overall being able to spend time with my fellow sisters in Christ, and have our leaders pouring into us was very very special and I'm so thankful for it!!

— Kate George, 10th Grade

This was my last Captivated and it was so special! The Lord's hand was evident during each different activity and the time of worship was so sweet and intimate. All of the leaders were actively speaking into us and encouraging us. I especially cherished the weekend because of the bond that it strengthened within my small group. I'm so thankful for the truth that was poured into me over the weekend!
— Hope Hartsell, 12th Grade

This year's Captivated was a huge success! Hannah Smith did a phenomenal job preaching on lies girls believe, which was the theme of the entire weekend. Additionally, there were helpful breakout sessions on the relevant topics of body image and mental health. And of course, there was delicious food, a crafty project, and lots of friends to share it all with. Overall, I'd say that Captivated was an amazing weekend event filled with fun fellowship, life lessons, and, above all, wonderful worship. — Fiona Lee, 7th Grade

Captivated 2025 was so much fun this year! The theme was Truth Be Told, focusing on the lies we believe and how to combat them using the Bible. I really felt the Lord working in everyone and that was truly amazing to see. It was also wonderful to see how well everyone got along, with many friendships being created and deepened during that weekend. Overall, Captivated was wonderful, and I'm so grateful that I was able to experience it one last time.
— Georgia Finn, 12th Grade

Moms Mentoring Moms

Mom's Mentoring Moms culminated the end of our spring semester with a tea. In addition to wonderful food, it was a time of celebration and reflection on where we've been over the last year and where we will go in our studies as we move into the second year of our Moms Mentoring Moms program.

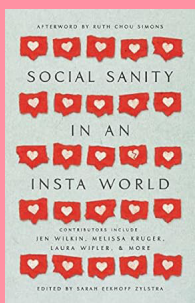

This year the emphasis has been on personal spiritual development as it relates to marriage, motherhood, and caring for oneself and others. We look forward to next year as we focus on Christian interaction and relationships within our families, our Christian Community, and the community at large.

If you are looking for community and would like to hear how the Gospel changes everything come join us as we discuss some interesting topics that relate to us as women, especially moms.

Taylor's Women Conference

Biblical Community. What is it and how do we as believers learn to foster it within our relationships?

Kristin Yeldell, our guest speaker, joined us on campus to encourage our women to not only be in community, but to do it in a way that honors the Lord and uplifts and encourages those around us. North Greenville University students led us in a sweet time of worship, as we thanked God for giving us the gift of relationships with those around us. Our ladies were able to spend some intentional time diving into topics that impact biblical community. We are thankful for how God spoke through our breakout leaders: Leah Finn, Alison Roller, Hannah Smith, and Cyndi Thompson. God is moving among the women at Taylor's First Baptist Church and we are looking forward to fostering environments for biblical community within our ministry. — Vanessa Vernon

Winter Bible Study

Taylor's Women recently completed their spring Bible study, Faithful in the Covenants. After reading through the Bible chronologically in 2024, focusing in on the covenants of the Old and New Testaments helped our ladies gain a deeper understanding of God's Promises and the beauty of the Grand Narrative of Scripture. We are blessed to have a bounty of wonderful teachers who led us through these covenants. Over 150 women gathered each week to study and fellowship on Tuesday nights, Wednesday morning, and virtually on Zoom! Watch the coming weeks for a summer challenge in the Psalms! We'd love to have you join us for our Fall Bible Study starting in September.

— Julie Caldwell, Bible Study Team Leader and Tuesday Night Leader

ENGAGE THE WORLD.

GO GATHERING

On Monday, March 10, Taylors FBC had the opportunity to host a GO Gathering, where Nathan S, affinity leader with IMB for South Asia, met with over 40 mission leaders and those interested in missions. Nathan is a gifted leader whose love for the Word and its authority fuels his passion to see Christ's Church established among the unreached. God is using him to raise up an army of workers who are focused on multiplying disciples and churches around the world. Whether those attending have already experienced some type of call, are considering and praying through the prospect of serving, or are in a place of leadership over those who are—God used those hours together in very encouraging ways! Would you pray that the fuel that was ignited would continue to burn, and that Christ's love would compel those who came to live not for themselves, but for Him who died for them and was raised again? (2 Corinthians 5:14-15)

At the Go Gathering with Nathan S, we had the opportunity to walk through the book of Acts and the foundation of the first churches. It was intriguing to see patterns emerge as the church spread from Jerusalem throughout Judea and to the ends of the Earth. What struck me the most was that in each city, it was the everyday people like Lydia or Cornelius whose hearts were softened when they heard the truth of the Gospel and were eager to share with those closest to them. The first churches didn't wait for trained pastors or teachers. They didn't wait for programs, events, or committees, yet the churches were founded. They were simply Sowers looking for Soil to spread the Seed of the Gospel. — David Evette

Going to the Go Gathering has been very impactful. I have become more aware of lost people in Taylors and also the need for missionaries to be sent to the nations. During the time at the Go Gathering, we looked at Scripture observing the command to go for the sake of the Gospel to be spread to all nations. I have been impacted through attending and am challenged to walk in boldness and sharing the Gospel with people around me on a regular basis. The Go Gathering has also given me a deeper desire to go to the nations for the sake of the Gospel. — Matt Bullard

Adaline, International Mission Board —Asia Pacific

Join us in thanking God for how He has been revealing Himself to Adaline* in the waiting! She grew up at Taylors First Baptist and first felt called to missions as a child. She interned in the Reach Office the summer of 2023 and then graduated from Anderson University in 2024. Last fall she left for a three-year term in Asia.

Waiting

Be still, and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10

Be still. Stillness is uncanny. In nature, it is the silent steps of a lion before their prey. It is the jungle when the birds stop chirping. It is the stillness of the waves before a tsunami. In our lives, it is tapping a pencil before the start of an exam, the impatient stop at a red light, or the pacing in a hospital waiting room. People typically don't like waiting. We like action, movement, purpose. And yet, stillness and waiting is the very thing our God often asks of us to do.

As I write this, I have been in my new home country for one month, and on the field for almost five months. I have spent nearly all that time waiting. And I praise God for it. The moment I arrived overseas I wanted to share the Gospel with any local I could find. But I slowly started to realize that my expectations, even the ones I hadn't known existed, would not transform into reality. I couldn't speak the language; I didn't know anyone here. And, after a brief one-day orientation, I began studying language full time. Which meant for 8 hours a day, I wasn't walking around sharing the Gospel, being discipled and discipling others, but I was studying words that floated around a page like oil swirling in a rain puddle.

Being still requires you to lay down your expectations, lay down your plans, and rest in the spaces God wants to work. On a recent plane ride, I sat next to a Muslim girl with a similar background as me and we immediately started talking and sharing our experiences. After take-off, our conversation grew quiet, but I desperately wanted to share the Gospel with her before we landed. She put on her headphones, pulled out a book, and settled in for the flight, while I prayed a silent request to the Lord. Father, I nearly whispered. I don't know how to do this; I don't know how to tell her the Gospel message. But if you will give me an open door, I will share with her. It was a simple prayer. One I had prayed many times before, in desperation and exhaustion. This time, before the word amen had time to enter my thoughts, the woman took off her headphones and turned to me asking, "If you don't mind me asking, are you a Christian?" I was so astonished, I genuinely stuttered out my yes. The conversation led to a full Gospel presentation and an invitation to their home for dinner. What I find striking about that experience, was that I had been trying to find a way into a Gospel conversation the entire time we had been talking to no avail. It was only after seeking how the Lord wanted to move did I have the opportunity to evangelize.

The Lord has been teaching me to be still in this waiting. In my new country, I have been waiting for visa plans to fall into place, a new language teacher, and a house or apartment. But even here, the Lord has sweetly brought believers into my life that join me in our collective call to the nations. He has introduced me to groups of native non-believers who desperately need to hear the Gospel. He has made it abundantly clear that I am not alone and that though my task is far too great, far too heavy and far too impossible - He has not asked me to carry it out alone. I truly can praise God for the waiting.

I have two questions for you as I close.

Firstly, will you join me in prayer as I continue to wait upon the Lord? Especially, I pray for direction on a visa platform, and a strong community to support me. I am also praying for another young woman to join me from the US in partnership with our team to reach this nation for Christ. And praise the Lord with me for a new home!

Secondly, how can you identify ways the Lord is asking you to wait and ways He is asking you to move? Where is the Lord already working to reach unbelievers with the hope of the Gospel, and how can you, in bold faith, join Him in that effort?

Thank you for your support and prayers. May God bless each of you.

STEP INTO THE STORY

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

Each year churches observe the Week of Prayer for North American Missions by praying for missionaries, their families, and their ministries. These missionaries need us to step into their stories through your prayers as they often face opposition, discouragement, and battle loneliness. North American missionaries take the gospel to unreached communities throughout the U.S. and Canada. They need your prayers to open hearts and help them disciple new believers.

To fuel their work, missionaries also need your gifts to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. This year's national offering goal is $78 million.

- Pray for North American Missionaries and the work they are doing. Pray the Lord would bless their families, marriages, and all that they put their hands to, and continue to sustain them as they share the Gospel and serve Him.
- Pray for the estimated 161 Unreached People Groups right here in North America, pray that the Lord would stir hearts of believers to answer, "Send me!" to reach these unreached people.
- Pray for relationships to be built and barriers to be torn down as these missionaries continue to engage those where they serve. Pray many would come to know the Lord as Savior and King.
- Pray for a wave of generosity to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Pray the national goal would not only be met, but overachieved, that work may continue on!

Pick up an Annie Armstrong Prayer Guide and offering envelope from the Reach Table near the coffee bar!

South Asia Valley Outreach

Thank you for praying for the South Asia Valley Outreach Team!

Our recent trip to South Asia was filled with learning, sharing our faith, and building relationships. We started in the capital city, where we trained with local partners to understand the culture and the discipleship tools we would be teaching in a remote village. As we explored the city, we encountered many people devoted to Hinduism and Buddhism. Seeing the ever-present reality of lostness reminded us of the importance of sharing the good news of Jesus. Despite the challenges, we had opportunities to share our stories and introduce the gospel.

Next, we traveled to a remote village to help local believers grow in their faith and learn how to share it with others. The journey was long, but the beautiful landscape and welcoming people made it worthwhile. We trained believers in sharing their testimonies and presenting the gospel, encouraging those facing persecution. Some had left the faith because of family and community pressure, but we prayed that they would return to Christ and rely on the Holy Spirit for strength and perseverance.

In the village, we led discipleship training, focusing on staying close to Christ, enduring hardships, and embracing God's mission. The believers' dedication, despite challenges, was inspiring, and they showed us deep gratitude.

Their eagerness to learn and apply what they were taught demonstrated their strong commitment to spreading the gospel.

Back in the city, we immersed ourselves in the local culture, visited historical sites, and learned more about the region's major religions. Worshiping with our partners in a house-church strengthened our connection with fellow believers. This trip reminded us of the urgent need for prayer, support, and future mission efforts. We invite you to be part of this mission—by going, sending, or praying for the gospel to reach every corner of South Asia.

Invite one of the team members from this trip to your Life Group or ministry area to share their personal reflections!
